INTRODUCTION

AT WORLD'S END

NEWFOUNDLAND & LABRADOR

There's an intrepid explorer hidden deep in every one of us so find yours on a remarkable journey to Newfoundland and Labrador.

Home to indigenous cultures, pristine wilderness, no less than four UNESCO World Heritage Sites plus the world's largest concentration of humpback whales, this is a place for explorers and dreamers.

Unplug from the grid, pause and soak up the magnificence of these ancient landscapes brought vividly to life by the people you'll meet on the way.

YOUR ITINERARY AT A GLANCE

DAY	SUMMARY	ACCOMMODATION
Day 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• On arrival in St. John's your private driver will take you to your hotel.• St. John's is colourful, small in stature and definitely remote however it is also a sophisticated and lively, urban city.• Explore the vibrant waterfront district for dinner this evening.	The Luxus Boutique Hotel
Day 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• After breakfast this morning you'll be transferred by private driver to Petty Harbour for your humpback whale snorkelling adventure.• Enjoy a memorable experience as you head out in search of the humpback whales. The philosophy of the company we partner with is that the marine life must come to them. We are at the mercy of Mother Nature and sightings are not guaranteed.• Return to your hotel where the rest of the day is free for you to explore. St. John's is one of the oldest cities in North America and you'll find quirky boutiques and art galleries tucked into the narrow tangle of streets and vividly coloured buildings.	The Luxus Boutique Hotel
Day 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A private transfer will take you to the airport for your helicopter or charter flight to Fogo Island.• Lying just 45 minutes off of the Newfoundland coastline Fogo Island is an utterly fascinating place to visit. Shaped by the forces of nature over 420 million years, Fogo Island resembles nowhere else on earth.• Transfer to Fogo Island Inn, a truly unique structure seemingly balanced on the very edge of the world.• The remainder of the day is free for you to relax and explore your remarkable surroundings.	Fogo Island Inn
Day 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Head out for a full day of private guided hiking with a local naturalist, geologist or community host. There are 14 trails to choose from each offering a unique set of challenges and rewards. Your guide will spend time discussing the best options for you personally. Whichever route you follow you'll be treated to outstanding views.• Encounter local flora and fauna including puffins and caribou and enjoy a traditional Newfoundland 'boil up' of fresh fish, refreshing tea and foraged berries.• Explore the thriving fishing communities and haunting, abandoned villages.	Fogo Island Inn

DAY	SUMMARY	ACCOMMODATION
Day 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Today embark on a thrilling ocean adventure in search of marine life and icebergs.• Your state-of-the-art vessel offers safety and comfort with indoor and outdoor seating and a second level elevated deck for first-class wildlife viewing.• Your captain will regale you with tales of island life, and point out the pods of minke, pilot and fin whales plus colonies of seabirds that you'll be searching for, as you sail along the craggy, rugged shores of Fogo Island.• You'll also have chance to get up close and personal to the vast icebergs, as they float gently past.• After returning to the inn this afternoon, there is time to relax in the rooftop hot tub, head out on the dirt trails by cruiser bike or wander into town for a cup of tea with the locals and see some of the traditional craft methods in action.	Fogo Island Inn
Day 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Transfer back to Gander for your flight to Deer Lake, gateway to the Gros Morne National Park.• After checking into your charming, family owned hotel the rest of the day is free to relax. We can assist with suggestions for this afternoon if wanted.	Neddies Harbour Inn
Day 7	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Today meet your expert local driver-guide for your day exploring the Gros Morne National Park.• Begin with an interpretation of the area's cultural and natural history then join a small group for the short journey across Western Brook Pond, a landlocked fjord, surrounded by cascading waterfalls and soaring granite cliffs.• Hike through the much-lauded Tablelands, where the landscape is more akin to Mars than planet earth. See pillow lava, wild meadows, seastacks and sea caves, along with the ubiquitous wild sheep.• The tour ends in the pretty fishing village of Trout River. Take a gentle boardwalk stroll, see the craftwork of local artisans and plan where to enjoy dinner this evening at one the delicious seafood restaurants.	Neddies Harbour Inn
Day 8	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You will be transferred to Deer Airport for your onward flight this morning.

YOUR ACCOMMODATION

Luxus Boutique Hotel, St. Johns

The Luxus boutique hotel is a modern property matching a warm Newfoundland welcome with style and technology.

They do things a little differently here. There's no check-in desk, instead a concierge will greet you and cover all the details as you are escorted to your room.

With just 6 rooms, this hotel is boutique in the true sense of the word but you'll still find thoughtful touches such as a pillow menu to select from before you arrive, heated bathroom floors and wonderful harbour views.

Fogo Island Inn, Fogo Island

Set in a location usually described as one of the 'four corners of the earth' Fogo Island Inn will be unlike anywhere you have ever stayed before. The property has an outstanding reputation for place-specific hospitality, contemporary design and for operating as a community asset, ensuring that profits are reinvested into the local community.

29 suites offer panoramic windows with views over the powerful North Atlantic Ocean, Most have wood burning stoves and all are furnished with local fabrics and handmade furniture, a quietly thoughtful step away from the usual conservative hotel room design.

Neddies Harbour Inn, Gros Morne

It would be hard to beat the location of Neddies Harbour Inn. Set on Norris Point, Neddies is in the heart of the Gros Morne National Park so expect magnificent views and a tranquil location.

The inn offers simple but comfortable rooms and a warm and welcoming service along with a strong focus on environmental, cultural and social sustainability.
