YOUR ACCOMMODATION

Hotel Brosundet, Aalesund

The old town of Ålesund is divided by a channel connecting two fjords and Hotel Brosundet lies in the middle. You will be staying at an historical site - one of them listed – and experiencing the curious mix of the Norwegian sophisticated modern life and the charming quirks of a lost, simpler time.

Walk in, look right – find a smile, framed by the dark shades of wood and the clean lines of true Nordic design. The 131 rooms are spread over two historical buildings (and one lighthouse). The slightly tilted floors, the sounds of the sea, the hints of Nordic design, all conspire to the serious love affair between past and future, also known as norwegianness.

Storfjord Hotel

Storfjord Hotel is a secluded, family owned, luxury boutique hotel situated in Glomset, on a hillside overlooking the Storfjord and Sunnmøre Alps. Behind the handcrafted log walls awaits an experience you will not find anywhere else. An inspiration where Norwegian traditions meet modern design.

The rooms at Storfjord Hotel are spacious and elegant. Take in the familiar scent of timber and enjoy the works of art and carefully selected antiques. Sit comfortably in designer furniture while drinking coffee and enjoy the magnificent view. When you're ready, slip into a warm robe and follow the path. Where the hotel meets the forest, you will find yourself in the peaceful surroundings of the Wellness Spa.
